CD Left of the middle

End of the third round, As I put the phone down,
Chasing the same lines, Over the old ground,
I'm pushing zero, Where is my hero,
He's out there somewhere,
Left of the middle, And your world falls down,
And your there calling out,
But it's something I can't say,
Though it seems the only way,
But it's a game that I can't play,
Not today, I got my ticket,
And I got a straight road,
But I'm passing the same signs,
Over and Over,
And my world falls down,
And I'm there calling out,
But it's something I cannot say,
Though it seems the only way,
But it's a game that I can't play,
Not today, I need to tell you,
Trying to get through,
It's not always easy,
Left of the middle.
