

Love and money - 1/1

You work so hard

And you sleep like death
You dream love and money
With every breathe

So strong, so sad, so lonely
Lost in a trance
Your eyes, so soft, so innocent
Who would doubt that you were shy

You stroke her face
But your smile is sick
You get love for money
And you fuck like a pig

How long can this keep going on
Living your lies
You shroud the rape in innocence
After all the sorrow, ho why

So, one night we'll meet
I'll be ready to take a chance, take a chance
To fight the fear to make it end
I'll take a chance

Go work so hard
Go sleep like death
You make love and money
With every breathe

You make love and money...
Go now, go now...
