All those beautiful people
I want to have them all
All those porcelain models
If only I could make them fall

Be my heart a well of love Flowing free so far above

A wintry eve Once upon a tale An Ugly Duckling Lost in a verse Of a sparrow's carol Dreaming the stars

In my world Love is fort poets Never the famous balcony scene Just a dying faith On the heaven's gate

Crystal pond await the lorn Tonight another morn for the lonely one is born
