COMA BLACK

a) eden eye

My mouth was a crib and it was growing lies
I didn't know what love was on that day
My heart's a tiny bloodclot, I picked at it
It never heals it never goes away

I burned all the good things in the eden eye
We were too dumb to run, too dead to die

This was never my world, you took the angel away
I'd kill myself to make everybody pay
This was never my world, you took the angel away
I'd kill myself to make everybody pay

I would have told her then, she was the only thing
That I could love in this dying world
But the simple word "love" itself
Already died and went away

This was never my world, you took the angel away
I'd kill myself to make everybody pay
This was never my world, you took the angel away
I'd kill myself to make everybody pay

I burned all the good things in the eden eye
We were too dumb to run, too dead to die

b) the apple of discord

Her heart's bloodstained egg we didn't handle with care
It's broken and bleeding and we can never repair
