

Failure - 1/1

Interprété par Unloco.

Maybe I, I didn't seem to have a thing left to say
I bottled it far away
Maybe I, I tried too hard to find someone to blame
Maybe it's me who changed
And now, I'm left with nothing again

So what if I lost everything
Would you want me if I was a failure
So what if I lost everything
Would you be there even when I am gone

Maybe I, I didn't seem to give everything away
Not because I needed you to stay, and I
I couldn't face the fears I left far behind
I try to answer every question to why
I'm left with nothing again

So what if I lost everything
Would you want me if I was a failure
So what if I lost everything
Would you be there even when I am gone

Maybe you couldn't see
All the pain inside of me
And now I feel like this was all for nothing
'Cause I'm left with nothing, I'm left with nothing again
So what if I lost everything
Would you want me if I was a failure

So what if I lost everything
Would you want me if I was a failure
So what if I lost everything
Would you be there even when I am gone

So what if I lost everything
Would you want me if I was a failure
