

Sunburn (version originale) - 1/1

Interprété par Muse.

come waste your millions here secretly she sneers another corporate show a guilty conscience grows and I'll feel a guilty conscience grows

refrain
she burns like the sun and i can't look away and she'll burn our horizon make no mistakes

come let the truth be shared no-one ever dared to break these endless lies secretly she cries

and I'll hide from the world
behind a broken frame
and I'll run forever
I can't face the shame
i can't face the shame
