

Caravan - 1/1

Interprété par Blur.

caravan is lost in the sun and the dust
no-one loves you when you are lost yeah I' ve been a clown trying to pull my whole world down I believed i was strong But you are the one and when it comes,you'll fell

the weight of it

And the day will come when you'll get away from it,

Sometimes everything is easy
Sometimes everything is easy

I tried to quit
But my heart won't buy it
I got family
The caravan came back for me

And when it comes you'll feel the weight of it,
The weight of it
And the day you'll get away from it away from it

Sometimes everything is easy
