I know there's something I could tell you or tell me I hope this matter private whose you're loving we can blow up this now it's all because of mine don't people change things cause I can't pray for I never needed your cry but I love your cry don't you want me? cause I need you so

I know that you're ashamed so romantic that accuse you don't you know that you're ashamed? so romantic that you cry there's always something that will makes you kiss me there's also something that I would tell you or tell me we should blow up this now

don't people see yourself
I love your cry that's romantic cause I need you so
