

Silence is killing me - 1/1

Interprété par Entwine.

As I open my eyes for the new dawn
I realize how lost we are
Today's the day when we open the new door
I think that I'm losing my mind so release me now

Different ways we have in this life
Our common life is far away from love
Our truth is made of lies
This silence is killing me
And I believe I'm done

When you'll open your eyes for the new dawn
I'll be gone and you'll know now how to live your life

Different ways we have in this life
Our common life is far away from love
Our truth is made of lies
This silence is killing me
And I believe I'm done

I think that I'm losing my mind so release me now
Too many lies for my pride so I say goodbye

Our truth is made of lies
This silence is killing me
And I believe I'm done
