

Moon & the sky (radio) - 1/1

Interprété par Erasure.

All of a sudden it's gone
Too late to wish a friend farewell
Heard the sea in a shell
Said we would meet in other worlds

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky
Gonna reach high
Gonna put my hand out
Reach and touch the sky

Hold you head in my hand
A taste, a wish, a parting sigh
Takes the boat across the water
Heaves a gentle sigh

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky
Gonna reach high
Gonna put my hand out
Reach and touch the sky

All of a sudden it's gone
Too late to wish a friend farewell
Heard the sea in a shell
Said we would meet in other worlds

See how the moon, she cries
Cool how the tears fill up the sky as snow

Gotta touch the sky
Gonna reach high
Gonna put my hand out
Reach and touch the sky

With my feet on the ground
With my head in the clouds
I'll be coming around
Coming straight for you
