i heard the message then i rang it off the hook i didn't get you till 1 am who was wrong and who was right and this distance caused a fight now i'm ready to give in honestly i'd give anything to be with you right now this town is full of dumb reminders having a good time can't you tell hang up the phone and then i come back down miss you i hope you're doing well i'm used to waiting what's a voice without a face i think i'm dying without you here so i drink myself to sleep and then i hide beneath the sheet and i try to disappear i get up every single time cuz you keep me alive this town is full of dumb reminders how far ahead from you in miles if i could get one time as take it down maybe then i could see you
