

Sick - 1/1

Interprété par Lillix.

I'm never going to be what you want to see
Always got to be me and free
Right or wrong, you'll be gone

Well I've heard it all before, and I'm tired of the lies I've tried
I won't compromise
You're a thousand miles away, draining under my flooded veins
Take away the strain

I don't think that you know
I'm about to let you go
Before I put you away
One more thing I've got to say

I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
I'm sick of you again and I'm thinking no
I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
Of falling behind, don't want to worry and cry again
And I just want to say
Stop, go on

I have thrown it all away, reaching over a cloudy day
And I'm on my way
Cast my shadows all aside, creeping over into the sky
Shining brighter I feel alive

I'm never going to be what you want to see
Always go to to be me you're free
Carry on, run along
Frustrated by you, typical what you do
I'm tired and through, renew
Living on wiht you gone

Stop, go on
