Come take a look
Because all this could mean that I
Don't really care
Who ends up getting hurt

Please take a look
If it's judgement versus instinct
How do I feel
When my feelings don't even work

Know that I'll be there
Cause I can't see it in your smile
Time stood still for me
When you call
Said I

Answer me this
Yes all I have is questions
You can't slip away and hide behind a false truth

Time takes too long
Just seems like I'm still standing here now
And I can't even feel the rain that hits my shores

Know that I'll be there
Cause I can't see it in your eyes
Time stood still for me
When you called

I'm still waiting, I still breathe
That's a sign that I'm still me
I'm still breathing, I can see
So i must be alive for real

When will I get there
I should be here by now
Got it all worked out
Did I see you laughing
Yeah funny it's not meeeeeee

In time, all I want is in way
Get too long and now it's gone, it's gone

I'm still waiting, I still breathe
That's a sign that I'm still me
I'm still breathing, I can see
So I must be alive for real

Still laughing - 2/2

So I must be alive for real, yeah I must be alive, for real, I must be alive for real
