In Your Smile

Blowing in the wind
Floating on the magic
Listen as she sings
She's beautiful
Innocence begins
It's happy as it's tragic
Never even sinned
So beautiful
Don't look that way
'Cause I can't stay

[Chorus]

Don't wanna stop you growing
It's killing me just knowing
'Cause what you have today is so great now
There's something that is perfect
Well everything is worth it
You've got to keep a hold of it somehow
You've got to, believe me
I only want to see me
In your eyes
In your smile

Half of me is you
Half of me is leaving
But everything I do
So beautiful
Don't look that way
'Cause I cant stay

[Chorus]

Your smile
Your smile
You've got to, believe me
I only want to see me
In your eyes
In your smile

[Chorus]
