

Tonight you're mine - 1/1

Interprété par David Hallyday.

I feel the fire in the midnight air burning me turning me through the smoke I see you standin' there haunting me taunting me in your eyes an invitation you're sending only to me and all I know I got to have you one touch of magic and I'll make you see

* Tonight you're mine
this moment here together will turn into forever
Tonight you're mine
I've waited for a lifetime tonight will be the right time for love

I got the power I can read your mind telling me compelling me I hear your message through the open line come to me, baby run to me I'm pickin' up your vibrations they're leading straight to my heart your body knows the sweet sensation no way to stop it, we're gonna start

* (repeat)

How did you make this happen baby won't you look at me now girl you turned me around I'm out of my head look what we found
