

Madness strikes at midnight - 1/1

Interprété par Stratovarius.

Album : Twilight Time (1992) Paroles et Musique : Timo Tolkki

He's crawling out from the asylum now Under cover of the night Insanity of his crazy mind It's useless for you now to hide Walking the streets someone's in sight He's waiting for you in the night Hiding in the shadows, hiding in the alleys He's ready to kill tonight

So lock your doors and hide And pray your god 'cause you're not alone

Years he spent in the cage
They did not help him at all
Now today with the power of his rage
He's slaughtering people tonight
Walking the streets someone's in sight
He's waiting for you in the night
Hiding in the shadows, hiding in the alleys
He's ready to kill tonight
