Danger zone

I look into the mirror see my face again

I hear myself preaching

You are getting bold

Growing old

Skin turns cold

You're to blame

But I will find the way to be myself again

I break the mirror with the noise

Stop preaching me

Teaching me

Leave me be

There's no way to stop me now

My end is in sight

I reach for the light

Tonight, tonight, tonight

Twilight time

It's twilight time

Reaching for a morning light

It's twilight time
