

Tough enough - 1/1

Interprété par Vanilla Ninja.

Baby only the strong will survive
All the mysteries of life
Only fantasy keeps you away
In the lonely fields
Of those broken shields
So keep on kickin'
the bomn is tickin'
Don't stop - don't be a runaway
Go for the fire
Baby are you tough enough
Just keep on livin'
And don't start givin'
The devil good reasons
To get you in the seasons of heart break
Baby are you tough enough
Yeah my skin is a dangerous place
Never trust my smiling face
With a touch I can chance all your dreams
And my kiss can wake
Feelings you can take
I will meet you there
Cos I need you there
Oooh tonight
