

Bully - 1/3

Interprété par Eminem.

[Intro]

Yo, check it out, itz fucked up, cuz I dun see either one of us butchin'

[couplet 1]

I'm withholding my anger, though I'd like to be the strangle of this punk ass lil' pussy spewnienecks It's my right to insist that he acknowledges my existence, but he just displays complete lack of respect That's what he says to himself as he uses magazines to trash me
As he sits with both his feet up at his desk Smokes a bag of his weed and starts imagining things and he just can't see that he's manically depressed and in his jeaulousy and envy it just whurls him in a frenzie as he turns on mtv and sees my face He don't excist in this world so he just twists and he twurls spirals and spins 'till he hurls himself in a rage (raaaaah) And it's destroying him slowly
'Cause he does not even know me Even though he sees me everywhere he goes So he just tortures himself
He has no fortune and wealth So he extorts someone else to get his dough and now he's actin' like a bully so he tries to push and pull me but he knows that he can't pull me so he's mad he has no choice but to scream and raise his voice in with me cuz it annoys him to see that I aint scared

[Refrain]

You aint no motherfucking bully
And I ain't bowing to no motherfucking bully
I won't allow, ain't no coward to no Bully I'll be damned if I don't stand up to no Bully Fight like a man and throw my hands up to a Bully
And I know that it must be fucking with you emotionally

[couplet 2]

Now I'm not trying to make no more enemies no more unfortunately then so many other motherfuckers that just are They just keep hounding at me now that I'm down with 50

Bully - 2/3

Suddenly now I got beef with this faggot Ja But his ass is such a puppet Irv can shove his whole hand up it and Just make him say what he wants him to say But Suge has Irv on a string and Irvs so nervous that he says anything to just keep this man at bay So now Ja thinks that hes so tough that Murder Incs the Big bad wolf and they go huff and puff to blow our label down But our labels made out of bricks so you aint taking out shit and Oh you just did a song with Bobby Brown So now you try to pull a race card and it backfires in your face hard Cause you know we don't play that black and white shit Plus the stylist that you fucked when you were ecstaciad up
Was just a man who was dressed up as a white bitch

[Refrain]

You aint no motherfucking bully
And I ain't bowing to no motherfucking bully
I won't allow, ain't no coward to no Bully
I'll be damned if I don't stand up to no Bully
Fight like a man and throw my hands up to a Bully
And I know that it must be fucking with you emotionally

[couplet 3]

Now what bothers me the most about hip hop is we so close to picking up where we left off with big and pac, we just lost Jam master jay Big L got blasted away plus we lost Bugz, Slang Ton and Freaky Tah Its like a never ending cycle that just seems to come full circle everybodys got to be so fucking hard, im not excludin myself, cause I've been stupid as well I've been known to lose it when someone says something smart But as we grow as men we learn to let shit go but then again Theres only so much bullshit we can really stand, we all got reps to uphold, when someone steps on our toes Theres no exceptions it goes for every man
But if Irv really gave a fuck about Ja like he claims he does He'd wake him up and make his boy get off them drugs
But he just keeps feeding him pills and if they dont kill him someone from G-unit will and I aint buzzed Dawg im talking to you straight, if the situation escelates any worse we're going to lose another soldier to this game And if I get killed for this rap I got a million in Cash that says I will get you back in Hailie's name

Bully - 3/3

[refrain]

You aint no motherfucking bully
And I ain't bowing to no motherfucking bully
I won't allow, ain't no coward to no Bully
I'll be damned if I don't stand up to no Bully
Fight like a man and throw my hands up to a Bully Irv go get your boy up off that E
