Welcome to the Anarchy
Enigmatic entity
The grand illusion - destitution infecting one and all

Forces they're oppressing me Lords of mediocrity an iron will shall break the still some will rise and some will fall

Oh... yes, we ride through stormy skies of Fire

Evil lies that mesmerize from the dragons' tongue they slide a fury lashes from the ashes never losing sight

Pounding down the wicked ones Tyrants now are overcome A final yell from hounds of Hell rising we unite

Yes we ride through stormy skies

The endless nights
In the moonlight, we do gather
We curse uncertainty and false desires
We lift the mask
and stand together - one and all
and when the flames grow dim, look within Unleash the Fire...

A time will come when all will see In the end - its just a game Time will tell when all these things that have come to pass - still remain

The endless nights
In the moonlight, we do gather
We curse uncertainty and false desires
We lift the mask
and stand together - one and all

Inferno (unleash the fire) - 2/2

and when the flames grow dim, look within Unleash the Fire...
