Album : The Odyssey (2002)

Musique : Michael Romeo / Michael Lepond

Paroles : Russell Allen / Michael Romeo

Lurking out of sight Night shall fall and feed my frenzy Beneath an eerie moon a change comes over me

Eyes glow by candlelight a face divided in the mirror my psyche ripped by daggers of my alchemy

Side by side with myself again
As midnight's curse descends on trembling hands

Oh - save my soul
losing control when the bells toll

Savage on the prowl
In the lamplight's glow - nocturnal my breath hangs like ghosts in the evening air

This ill effect - a vile creation of my design - abomination the madness rages on and on...

Side by side with myself again
As midnight's curse descends on trembling hands

Oh - save my soul
losing control when the bells toll
Oh - feed my soul
I'm in control - when the bells toll
