

Stupid little love song - 1/1

Interprété par Fefe Dobson.

It's jsut a stupid little love song
Your granddad fought in WW11
Your cousin landed on the moon'
Your mother is a diplomat
Senator of Connecticut
Your sister's got a 4.0
Your fathers got hsi own talk show
Your brother aced the science test
He found the cure for morning breath
I came here by taxi you came by limousine and
All I have to offer you is this
Just a stuppid little love song
Three chords and a microphone
It's a stupid little love song
Hip-hop and rock-n-roll
So sit right down and I'll sing this song to you
Pet'em up
You're captain of the football team
A cheerleaders rucurring dream
You're on the road to HARvard law
I'm on the bus to Arkansas
I stand in your doorway
Your world looks so enchanting
And all I have to offer you is this...
And the moon comes in the window like a spotlight
Listen up cause this is real
I sit you down and I begin to gently rock the mic
Cause I'm trying to tell you what I feel
And we're truly approaching a moment and then you lean over and say 'what's my name
"hi is Brett home ?"
"Well, will you tell him I came by ? "
I stand in your driveway
Your world looks so far away and all I have to offer you is this ...
