

Sad song - 1/1

Interprété par Hooverphonics.

Now it's time to move to the next level
Sore wet eyes that look at the devil
Tell me please that it's time to leave

On the train I lost my intelligence
Found my love with good intentions
But it's still time to leave

(chorus)

I recorded the sound of your heart
I recorded the sound of your eyes
And I converted them into this sad song
That modulated these mysterious lights
