Everything is catching up with me
I awake to find I'm not at all where I should be
And it feels I'm getting to the end
And it's hard to figure out what's real and what's pretend

To break from what we're tied to
God knows how much I've tried to
And I am still inside you
And I am still inside you

I escape every now and then
And to think I find myself back here again
And again

I used to know who I was until you came along
I return to the only place I've ever felt I belong

To break from what we're tied to
God knows how much I've tried to
And I am still inside you
And I am still inside you
