

I don't wanna fall in love again - 1/1

Interprété par Alsou.

Have you ever been a second late
The doors have shot of the last train
It's getting dark, you're feeling cold,
So where's home you're all alone.
There are no clouds to stop the rain,
To wash away all the pain.
I see your face in every dream,
This love of yours is hurting me.

I don't wanna go through pain again,
I don't wanna feel this way again,
I don't wanna hear your name again,
And I don't wanna fall in love again,
Oh, no...
And if I do I have myself to blame,
Because of you I'll never be the same,
And tomorrow is just another day,
Maybe one day love will find a way.

See I was told so long ago,
That your words are powerful,
And so I pray that heaven's here
I turn away to all my fears
He never is predictable,
You can not say what you don't know,
There's still a chance, love could exist,
My heart and soul should now resist.

Never say never, say always
The sun will shine on me again
Until my heart forgives the pain
I say...

I don't wanna go through pain again,
I don't wanna feel this way again,
I don't wanna hear your name again,
And I don't wanna fall in love again,
Oh, no...
And if I do I have myself to blame,
Because of you I'll never be the same,
And tomorrow is just another day,
Maybe one day love will find a way.
