

I'm Your Villain - 1/1

Interprété par Franz Ferdinand.

You toss in a word
And I'm your villain
I see the passion emerge
And I'm your villain
But serious, you're so serious
Like a waiter, hating the rich
But taking their tips

Oh, if I could laugh, I'd love you
If I could smile at anything you said
We could be laughing lovers
I think you'd prefer to be miserable instead
If I could love, I'd love you
If I could love like anybody else
(Anybody else, anybody else, yeah)

I know what I am
And I'm your villain
Oh, no, I don't give a damn
If I'm your villain
Because, serious, you're so serious
But I've got ready, salted, ready on your belly
If you want to have fun

See you later, baby, see you later
