

Let there be rock - 1/1

Interprété par Ac/dc.

In the beginning, back in nineteen fifty five
Man didn't know 'bout a rock'n'roll show, and all that jive
The white man had the schmaltz, the black man had the blues
But no one knew what they was gonna do
But Tchaïkovsky had the news, said

Let there be sound, and there was sound
Let there be light, and there was light
Let there be drums, and there was drums
Let there be guitar, and there was guitar
Let there be rock

And it came to pass, the rock'n'roll was born
All across the land every rockin' band was blowin' up a storm
And the guitar man got famous, the business man got rich and in every bar, there was a superstar with a seven year itch
There was fifteen million fingers pickin'
And this is what they had to say

Let there be light, sound, drums, guitar
Let there be rock

One night in a club called the Shakin' Hand
There was a forty two decibel rock'in' band
The music was good, and the music was loud
And the singer turned and he said to the crowd

Let there be rock
