

Was it a dream - 1/1

Interprété par 30 Seconds To Mars.

Your defence is where I'll hide
Your walls built deep inside
Yeah I'm a selfish bastard
But at least I'm not alone

My intentions never change
What I want still stays the same
And I know what I should do
Its time set myself on fire

Was it a dream ?
Was it a dream ?
Is this the only evidence that proves
A photograph of you and I

Your reflection I've erased
Like a thousand burned out yesterdays
Believe me when I say goodbye forever
Is for good

Was it a dream ?
Was it a dream ?
Is this the only evidence that proves
A photograph of you and I
(a photogram of you and I)

Whoa yeah! Whoa ?

Was it a dream ?
Was it a dream ?
Is this the only evidence that proves
A photograph of you and I
(A photograph of you and I)
Was it a dream ?
Was it a dream ?
Is this the only evidence that proves
A photograph of you and I
A photograph of you and I
A photograph of you and I
