

Sometimes it rains - 1/2

Interprété par David Charvet.

You been thirsty for a change
A change in the weather
Walked this rocky terrain
'Til your heart is tough as leather

And there's no sign in the sky above you
That anyone's gonna come and love you
And take away your heartache and your pain

But sometimes it rains
Sometimes it pours
Sometimes an angel comes knocking on your door
Though it's hard to tell
Through a long dry spell
That the clouds above are ever gonna break
But sometimes it rains

You've been prayin' for a miracle
A miracle to save you
You've been wishin' your heart was full
Of the faith that god gave you

A flash of light and a roll of thunder
Fill your eyes and your ears with wonder
And give your heart the strength to try again

But sometimes it rains
Sometimes it pours
Sometimes an angel comes knocking on your door
Though it's hard to tell
Through a long dry spell
That the clouds above are ever gonna break
But sometimes it rains

Let it flood the valley of your need
And give you back a reason to believe

Though it's hard to tell Bien
Through a long dry spell
That the clouds above are ever gonna break

But sometimes it rains
Sometimes it pours
Sometimes an angel comes knocking on your door
Though it's hard to tell
Through a long dry spell
That the clouds above are ever gonna break

Sometimes it rains - 2/2

But sometimes it rains
Sometimes it rains

Sometimes it rains
