

Stand your ground - 1/1

Interprété par Robbie Williams.

Stand your ground

You're big enough

Stand your ground

You know too much

Today drifts into tomorrow

And you can almost taste the sorrow

Stand your ground

You've had enough

Lost and found

Diamond in the rough

Today drifts into tomorrow

You feel your soul's been borrowed

Oooh, oooh ...

Stand your ground

The water's deep

Feel the sand beneath your feet

I know your prayers seem hollow

But when it's hard they follow

Oooh, oooh ...
