

He broke your memory last night - 1/1

Interprété par Reba McEntire.

Like a rare piece of crystal
Like a fine China cup
I kept your memory all safely locked up
Afraid I could never love somebody new
I was trying to save what I had left of you

Chorus:

Then he broke your memory last night
I felt it shatter inside
I guess he held me a little too right
He broke your memory last night

The moment he touched me with his gentle hands
Your memory crumbled like a house built on sand
The swept all the pieces of your love away
And then gave me his love to put in it's place

chorus

He broke your memory last night
