

Thinking about you - 1/1

Interprété par Norah Jones.

Yesterday I saw the sun shinin'
And the leaves were fallin' down softly
My cold hands needed a warm, warm touch
And I was thinkin' about you

Here I am lookin' for signs of leaving
You hold my hand, but do you really need me ?
I guess it's time for me to let you go
And I've been thinkin' about you
I've been thinkin' about you

When you sail across the ocean waters
And you reach the other side safely
Could you smile a little smile for me ?
'cause I'll be thinkin' about you
I'll be thinkin' about you
I'll be thinkin' about you
I'll be thinkin' about you
