

Who let you go - 1/1

Interprété par The Killers.

Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
I feel it inside, down in my soul
And I just can't hide things that I know

We could be friends
And I promise that it won't get bad
But hopefully that story ends
But you ain't got nothing I never had
So let's take it slow

Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?

Someone must have loved you
Not the way that I do ...
You're missing what I'm trying to say
Ain't nothing getting in my way

So tell me that's fantastic
And promise me, you'll always sigh
I find it so romantic
When you look into my beautiful eyes
And lose control

Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?
Who let you go ? Who let you go ?

I don't know what it means
But I've been wondering
Who let you go?

And honey, when you walk my way
It makes me wanna say ...
Ohhh

Sha-la-la-lo, sha-la-la-lo
