

No buses - 1/2

Interprété par Arctic Monkeys.

Lady, where's your love gone ?
I was looking but can't find it anywhere.
They always offer when there's Loads of love around
But when your short of some
It's nowhere to be found

Well I know your game,
You told him yesterday
No chance you'll get nothing from me
But now she's there, you're there and Everybody's there
He's in turmoil, as puzzled as can be
Just like me.

Let's go down, down, low down
Where I know I should not go
Oh and she's thinks she's the one
But she's just one in twenty-four

And just 'cause everybody doing it
Does that mean that I can too?

Lady, where has your love gone
He was the antiseptic to the sore
To hold you by the hand
Must be first be in demand
How he longs for you to
Long for him once more
Just once more

Let's go down, down, low down
Where I know i should not go
Oh and she thinks she's the one
But shes just one in twenty-four

And just 'cause everybodys doing it
Does that mean that I can too?

Ohh, her eyes went down
And cut you up
And theres nothing like a dirty look from
The one you want
Or the one you lost

An ache in your soul
Is everybody's goal

To get what they can't have
That's why your after her
And that's why she's after him
But saying it won't change a thing

And don't realize that it won't change a thing
Realize it won't change a thing.
