Ooh oh

im not missing you

mmmm

been through just about everything that i could go through when it comes to relationships dont know what i was missing or why i aint listen when i told myself that was it but here i go hurt again cause of my curiosity now that its over what else could it be besides a cheat

i made a promise
never to settle (why didnt i keep it) cos i needed the heart break cryin and cheatin the fooling around but im not missing u im not going through emotions waiting and a hoping u call me im not missing u u mighta had me open but i must be goin because i got lots to do i know im usually hanging on i used to hate to see u go but this time its different i dont even feel the distance im not missing im not missing u its a shame in a way cos i feel that i may not ever find the right one for me did i leave him this year i didnt find a face oh will my true love ever be how could i go on a search again when i know what the end will be what good is love when it keeps on hurting me
